

FOCUS ON COMMUNICATIONS—II—PANEL

Session Organizer: Laura Hermann (Potomac Communications)

We hear a lot about “real news,” “fake news,” “alternative facts,” and many wonder what constitutes real news and real journalists. Do they write blogs, do podcasts, make pronouncements, inform or irritate? In this panel, journalists from media platforms ranging from print to wire services to broadcast that report and break trade, regional and national news will discuss these issues and many more. And they’ll give tips on how to recognize real news and debunk “fake news.”
